

COMING TO...

2 LORD NORTH STREET

AFTERNOON CONFERENCE: Christianity, politics, the poor and the planet

What should the Christian attitude and response to these issues be?

The IEA is delighted to invite you to an afternoon conference (2-5pm) on "Christianity, politics, the poor and the planet."

The event will be formed of two panels, one on poverty and inequality, and one on the environment.

Poverty and Inequality panel

Steve Baker MP, MP for Wycombe; Founder of The Cobden Centre

Rev. Professor Philip Davis, Principal Research Fellow, NIESR; Pastor, Penge Baptist Church.

Dr Eliza Filby, Author of "God and Mrs Thatcher"

Lord Griffiths of Fforestfach, Vice-Chairman, Goldman Sachs International; Chairman of Trustees, Christian Responsibility in Public Affairs

Rev. Dan Stork Banks MBA, Social commentator and pastoral presence on the free market right (Chair)

Environment panel

Paul Cook, Advocacy Director, Tearfund

Dr Stephen F. Copp, Associate Professor, Department of Law, Bournemouth University (Chair)

Lord Donoughue, Trustee, Global Warming Policy Foundation; Co-Author of "The Papal Encyclical: A critical Christian response"

For more information, go to:

www.iea.org.uk/events/afternoon-conference-christianity-politics-the-poor-and-the-planet

Time: 21 October 2015, 2-5pm

Place: IEA, 2 Lord North Street, London, SW1P 3LB

RSVP: reception@iea.org.uk or

Call: 0207 799 8900

iea
Institute of Economic Affairs